

Sonam Kapoor in James Ferreira Gown

by Amrisha, boldsky.com

July 18 12:57 PM

Sonam Kapoor is flying high after her two consecutive films have been great at the box office. Even her style quotient has gathered a lot of compliments and appreciation from the fashion gurus recently. Sonam Kapoor who was busy sporting different looks at the promotions of her films, Raanjhanaa and Bhaag Milkha Bhaag attended the success party of BMB in a gorgeous James Ferreira gown.

Sonam Kapoor looked stunning in the one-shoulder pink coloured James Ferreira gown as she walked into the success party of Bhaag Milkha Bhaag. The gown had an elastic thin belt on the waist. The floor length gown made Sonam Kapoor look tall and toned! Sonam completed the look with side braided low hair bun and smokey eye makeup. The glossy pink lips and nude makeup made Sonam Kapoor look all the more gorgeous. Sonam accessorised the James Ferreira gown with T shaped flat beige coloured sandals and a silver clutch. We just love this vintage inspired hairdo of Sonam Kapoor and feel that the actress carried off the classy look with style and elegance!

Sonam Kapoor was previously seen in James Ferreira designed metallic silver gown at an event. In 2010, Sonam Kapoor wore a James Ferreira short plain white dress which had a plunging neckline.

We have also seen other celebrities in James Ferreira gown. Freida Pinto, Priyanka Chopra, Kajal Aggarwal, Parineeti Chopra, Esha Gupta, Shazahn Padamsee, Manasi Scott and Isha Sharvani to name a few have wore this designer label. At the IRFW (India Resort Fashion Week) 2013, Isha Sharvani wore a black silk James Ferreira gown and walked the ramp. Seems like James Ferreira is slowly becoming a hot pick among celebrities.

We just love Sonam Kapoor in this pink James Ferreira gown at Bhaag Milkha Bhaag success party. What do you think?