

India Fashion Week: James Ferreira's Indian touch

 by Authors, ibnlive.in.com

October 12 09:20 AM

New Delhi: Having made the models dance on popular item song "Sheila ki jawaani" last time, designer James Ferreira this time chose patriotic songs at the Wills Lifestyle India Fashion Week Spring Summer 2012 with Khadi and Gandhi caps being the star of his collection.

Ferreira's collection had Khadi hand woven in new shades of orange, lime green and fuchsia. His collection saw a mix of Indian and western wear. He chose to stick to the Indian roots with Khadi and gave traditional Indian wear a classy and modern look.

"It's high time that we bring Indian

A model walks the ramp wearing a James Ferreira collection --

(For updates you can share with your friends, follow IBNLive on Facebook, Twitter, Google+ and Pinterest)